THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

A Daily Resume of Latest Happenings.

JULY 31ST.

which one person was not less than a score, broke out last evening in the city. The streets of the city were in the hands of an mob. Gov. Stone was appointed for aid, and the Gov. together with two officers, were ordered to the scene. The trouble started with a mob of strikers, who were ordered to disperse by Sheriff Boddal. Two nonunion miners were beaten almost to death. The Sheriff opened fire on the mob. The strikers were ordered to disperse. The Sheriff opened fire on the mob. The strikers were ordered to disperse. The Sheriff opened fire on the mob. The strikers were ordered to disperse.

of mineral oil and coal rights in Eastern Kentucky. Many of the persons and corporations owning such rights have been escaping taxation.

Serious trouble has broken out on board the Mayflower, the President's yacht, because of the claims of men, members of the crew that their privileges are curtailed. Lieut. W. W. Phelps, the ship's executive officer, is charged by the Jackies with being tyrannical.

Since July 27 the village of Los Alamos, Cal., and the valley adjacent has been visited by over seventy distinct earthquakes. Every brick building in the village was ruined and although no lives were lost the people have deserted the place. Fires and new hills and knolls appeared in a night. The damage to property is placed at $30,000.

At the Confederate reunion yesterday Miss Laura Talbot Galt, of Louisville, was the recipient of much attention. She was presented two gold medals, one from the Georgia Society, of Montgomery, Ala., and the other the gift of Miss E. Graves Camp, U. C. V., of Owsboro. In representing the Georgia Society's medal Capt. W. T. Ellis delivered an eloquent address.

Judge Chytraus yesterday in Chicago altered his restraining order in the oats corner injunction suit by prohibiting the defendants from asking the president of the Board of Trade to endorse margins of the complainants on 55,000 bushels of oats. The defendants in their answer to the petition deny the existence of a corner or that they have conspired to raise the price of July oats.

Federal Judge Keller yesterday in Charleston, W. Va., granted a restraining order in the suit of the Chesapeake and Ohio Coal Company, which has contracts for the output of coal companies in West Virginia. A number of defendants are named, but the real parties subjected to the enjoining order are President John Mitchell and other members of the United Mine Workers of America. The order prohibits meetings on the properties of the companies contracted with by the plaintiff for the purpose of intimidating employees, and otherwise in specific terms prohibits interference with men desiring to work.

The presence of 1,200 State troops serves to maintain peace at Shenandoah, Pa., where the strikers' riot of Wednesday night occurred. The soldiers are camped on the hills overlooking the town, but martial law has not been declared. The citizens of Shenandoah charge the foreign element with responsibility for the riot. The miners assert that Deputy Sheriff Boddal was the prime cause of the struggle by reason of his having fired the first shot. A statement was issued from President Mitchell at Wilkesbarre when he learned of the trouble. He deprecated the occurrence and declared that the efforts of the Mine Workers' Union to prevent disorder would be redoubled.

A strikers' mass-meeting was held yesterday at Scranton, Pa., when 7,000 miners listened to a short address by President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers. He predicted that the work would win the struggle, and caution the miners against lawlessness.

Quiet has been restored at Shenandoah, the scene of Wednesday night's riot. The State troops are settling down for a long stay, and may be kept on the spot until the strike is ended.

Indictments were returned yesterday in Chicago against eleven members of Brass Molders' Local Union 83, charging them with paying rewards for assaults on non-union workmen, the scale varying according to the degree of injury inflicted. Witnesses stated to the grand jury that the union, through a business agent, offered from $5 to $25 for such assault received $25, and that in rare cases $3 was added.

eleven wounded. In accordance with an opinion by Attorney General Pratt, State Auditor Coulter will dismiss the suits filed to collect a $200 license tax from each of the brewers operated by the Central Consumers' Company. Judge Pratt holds that the tax assessed is against the several brewing plants operated by the company.

The earthquake shocks in the Los Alamos valley, California, continue, but the damage is reported to be small. In the town of Los Alamos, which has been practically deserted by its inhabitants, the damage is placed at $4000. One geologist attributes the quakes to the action of subterranean gases and oils, in which the district is known to abound.

The heaviest rains in years have been experienced in Mississippi, Arkansas, West Tennessee and North Alabama. In Arkansas the down-pour was unprecedented and much damage is reported from some localities. The flood is subsiding in the northeastern part of the State.

It is reported in Rome that the Vatican has determined on the gradual withdrawal of the obnoxious friars in the Philippines. The plan, it is said, is to have them all withdrawn by the time of the coming Manila conference so that this question will then have been settled.

Sixteen suits against State banks were filed at Frankfort yesterday by the Auditor's Department to recover franchise taxes due the State for the present year. The amounts sued for were due on July 1.

Gen. Jacob H. Smith, convicted by court-martial in the Philippines, arrived in San Francisco yesterday and received his first news of his retirement by the President. He declined to discuss the case.

The chief features of the reunion of ex-Confederates at Owensboro yesterday were lectures by Gen. John B. Gordon and Chaplain J. William Jones. The reunion closed last night.

Gov. Heckman will review the soldiers of the Second Regiment at the encampment at Mammoth Cave on Tuesday.

The inventor of the remarkable new armor plate to be used in the construction of warships is Lieut. Clelland Davis, a native of Louisville. He has spent years in the study of projectiles and armor plate.

William Jennings Bryan, in the course of an address at the mountain Lake Park Chautauquan Association on "Problems of Government," denied that he would again seek to become the national standard-bearer of the Democratic party.

Leaders of the striking miners claim that miners' certificates are now being issued to workmen contrary to law. Grand Chief Morrisey, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, has notified the miners' officials that his organization will offer aid at an opportune time.

The Frisco, in the meantime, is looking toward the Gulf.

AUGUST 4TH

Service on the Camden Interstate railway was completely tied up yesterday by the strikers. At London, O., fruit and eggs were hauled at motormen and conductors who attempted to run cars, and several men were severely handled.

Archbishop Ireland at St. Paul yesterday preached a sermon on the Friar question in the Philippines. He advised Catholics to leave the solution of the problem to the representatives of the Government and the Vatican.

Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota are in the midst of the greatest harvests ever known. The cash realization from wheat, oats, flax and corn, which crop is full of promise, is placed at $189,430,000. Barley will add $1,000,000.

Cholera is decreasing in Manila, but a large number of cases and deaths are reported from the provinces. Since the outbreak of the epidemic there have been reported throughout the archipelago 21,408 cases and 16,105 deaths.

Three attacks were made Saturday night on sentries of the Eight regiment stationed at Shenandoah, Pa., showers of stones fell. The entire regiment was finally called to arms, but only one man, a Lithuanian, was captured. Brig. Gen. Gobin, who is in command, ordered the insurance of ball cartridges and directed that if the sentries repeated the troops should shoot to kill and investigate afterwards.

Attorney J. B. Marcum, of Breathitt county, one of the feud refugees in Lexington, says that a regiment of soldiers is the only solution to the feud situation. With troops giving protection to witnesses and attorneys, he states that the murderers of Dr. B. D. Cox and Jim Cockrill could be discovered and brought to justice.

The police and family of Anna Belle Hartman, of West Point, are concerned over her disappearance from New Albany Saturday evening. She was last seen with a man whom none of her family knew, and the theory is advanced that she was abducted. No clue to the mystery has been obtained.

The manufacturers in the Indiana gas belt are greatly alarmed over the decision of Judge H. C. Ryan prohibiting the use of compressors in transporting natural gas. If the decision is sustained it is said that all the factories in the belt will close and that Chicago and other foreign cities will suffer.

Chicago undertakers, grave diggers, pallbearers and tombstone cutters are considering the formation of a Burial Trades Council.

A severe thunder storm broke over Oyster Bay yesterday afternoon keeping the President's family indoors most of the day.

MATTIE

Nannie McKinster, daughter of Lemuel Tomlin and wife of Jesse McKinster, was born Feb. 4th, 1876, married Nov. 29th, 1896, was converted July 23, 1902, and died July 12, 1902. She was the mother of three children, two of whom had preceded her to heaven, leaving one little daughter four years of age. Nannie died with consumption. She bore her afflictions with great patience, and especially after being converted. She seemed to be wholly resigned to the will of God, and retained her mind up to the last. She said that her mother and two children had come after her, and that she saw a host of angels on the other side of the river, and that she was going just as soon as God gave the command. She died about 5 o'clock p. m., Saturday, July 12. A few days prior to her death she wanted to hear the writer of this imperfect sketch preach, and during the service enjoyed the spirit very much and desired all present to give their hand that they would meet her in heaven. She spent often during her last days for uncle R. T. Thompson to come and sing and pray with her. Drs. L. B. Dean and J. O. Moore did all they could to save her. When a child M. R. Hays and wife took her to their home and she remained there until she married. She was laid to rest on the point near Mr. Hays' to sleep until God shall awake her at the great day of the Lord. She requested the writer to preach her funeral sermon, assisted by R. T. Thompson, some time this fall. Farewell "Nan" until we meet again. W. H. C. McKinster.

RESOLUTIONS.

We, the members of the Lawrence County Institute agree upon the following resolutions:
1.—That we approve the time and place of holding this Institute.
2.—That we tender our thanks to the citizens of Louisa for kindness shown the teachers during the week; and also the school board of the town for the free use of their school house.

LOOK PLEASANT, PLEASE.

Photographer C. C. Harlan, of Eaton, O., can do so now, though for years he suffered untold agony from the worst form of indigestion. All physicians and medicines failed to help him till he tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for him that he declares they are a godsend to all sufferers from dyspepsia and stomach troubles. Prescribed for diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, they build up and give new life to the whole system. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by A. M. Hughes, druggists.

Little Ora, only daughter of Clyssos and Barbara Belmont, died Saturday, July 19th, 1902, aged 10 months and 24 days. On Sunday at 2 o'clock the funeral took place, conducted by Rev. Miller, assisted by Rev. Miller. A large concourse of loving friends and relatives were present.

Ora was the pride of her home, but she has gone to meet her angel brother, leaving a broken hearted mother and father whose grief is almost more than they can bear. It seems so hard for them to give her up, but we must bow in humble submission to the will of Him who death all things well. A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is still. A place is vacant in the home. That never can be filled. May her friends be comforted and comforted by the assurance that her little soul is in keeping of that immortal One who doeth all things well. M. C.

William Pruetto, the singer, was one of a group of married men who were discussing home-keeping and servants the other evening in a Philadelphia club. He told of a girl who had been married to a man who was a clerk in a store. Mrs. Pruetto was thought while they were living in a New York flat several years ago, and who one day went to Mrs. Pruetto in tears and asked permission to go home for a few days. She had a telegram telling that her mother was ill. "Of course, go," said Mrs. Pruetto. "Only, Maggie, do not stay longer than is necessary. We need you." Maggie promised to return as soon as possible, and hurried away. A week passed without a word from her, then came a note by mail, reading: "Dear Miss Pruetto: I will be back next week an please keep my place for me. Mother is dying as fast as she can. To oblige, Maggie." —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

There are very few persons who like to have others tell them that they are not looking well; and yet most persons are never so happy as when they are telling of their pains and aches. Human nature is a queer proposition.
